

MEDIA RELEASE

6 October 2009 For Immediate Release

ENCHANTMENT, HEROISM, LOYALTY AND LOVE

Grimm Tales is an end-of-year treat for young and old. Be dazzled by The Golden Goose, find a candy house with Hansel and Gretel and fall in love with Snow White when Queensland Theatre Company presents Grimm Tales – a selection of the Grimm Brothers' most enduring stories.

Says Director Michael Fatcher, "Grimm Tales is a magical re-telling of those fantastical fables we all remember from childhood. Carol Ann Duffy and Tim Supple's refreshing new adaptation is a celebration of storytelling, where young and old alike will be enchanted by this heady mix of the chaotic and the gripping, the frightening and the farcical, all brought vibrantly to life by an ensemble of medieval musicians and seven talented actors".

Audiences will recognise some of their favourite stories and revel in the mischievous spirit of Grimm's original fables - the real way Snow White's evil step-mother was defeated, how Rumpelstiltskin truly ends and exactly how Hansel and Gretel got home.

With a cast including Eugene Gilfedder and Dan Crestani, Grimm Tales is a fabulous escape into a delightful world where anything and everything is possible.
