CHILDREN'S PLAY TO TOUR QUEENSLAND

Queensland Theatre Company and DeBASE Productions present Hurry Up and Wait!, a new show for families premiering at the Noosa Longweekend Festival before it tours to over 15, 000 children across Queensland.

Director Bridget Boyle said “Hurry Up and Wait! is like Waiting for Godot for children. Two clowns are waiting; they play games, tell stories and make jokes to pass the time. Local comedians Liz Skitch and Clint Bolster star in the show, which is shaping up to be one of the funniest we’ve done yet – audiences can expect humour for both adults and children.

“In our world of Ipods, Nintendo Wii and portable DVD players, the idea of children waiting without ready-made entertainment is quite novel, and we look forward to question time after the show to see what audiences think.”

Hurry Up and Wait! is on at Noosa Longweekend on 26 and 27 June and then tours to schools across Queensland throughout July, August and September.

Brisbane families can enjoy free performances at the Go Between Bridge Open Day Sunday 4 July.
